

1869-006 Chancery Causes. Auburn L. Pridemore vs. Jesse W. Robinett
Lee Co.

Hagan

CA - Debt

To the Worshipful County Court of Lee County in Chancery sitting Yair Orotor & Pridmore of said County respectfully state, that one Jesse W Robinett on the 11th day of May 1865 was indebted to Hiram Pridmore the sum of one hundred dollars for which he executed to the said Hiram his bond for said sum of money, bearing date on the said 11th of May 1865 and payable six months thence. This bond has been assigned by the said Hiram to Yair Orotor and is herewith filed with us, & Yair Orotor alleges that he is now the legal owner of said bond, and that the said Jesse W Robinett has not as yet paid the said sum of money due on said bond, or any part thereof either to the said Hiram Pridmore or Yair Orotor and that the whole amount with interest from the time the same became payable is now due and owing. Yair Orotor further alleges that the said Jesse W Robinett is not a resident of this State, and that he owns a tract of land in said County. The object of this bill therefore is to obtain a decree against the said Robinett for the amount of said bond and to subject a sufficiency of his estate within this Commonwealth to pay and satisfy the same.

Your Obedt therefore prays That the said Jesse W. Robins be made a party defendant to this bill and answer its allegations and statements upon oath
- That upon a hearing a decree be rendered in favor of your Obedt against the said defendant for the amount of his said claim, and That so much of the said tract of land owned by defendant, ^{as is necessary} be decreed to be sold to satisfy your Obedt's claim with legal costs and charges.
And grant such further and more relief as the nature of his case may seem to require, May Summon issue &c

Virginia Lee County twit

Patrick Hagan personally appeared before Henry Morgan Clerk of the County Court of Lee County and made Oath that Jesse W. Robins against whom Arthur L. Prodemore has instituted a chancery suit in the county court of said County is not a resident of this Commonwealth and that he the said Patrick Hagan believes the said Jesse W.
Robins is justly indebted to the said Prodemore in the sum of $1000 and that said Prodemore is justly entitled to and ought to recover against the said Jesse W.
Robins in said suit said sum of $1000 at the least, with legal interest thereon from the 11th day of Nov. 1865 that he believes the claim of said Prodemore to be just, that he believes said Prodemore's present cause of action against said Robins is proper And that he the said Hagan believes the said Robins his estate in the County of Lee liable for the said claim

Given under my hand this 22^d day of Sept. 1866.

A S Pridemore plaintiff.

In Chancery.

Jesse W. Robinson defendant

This cause came on this day to be heard on the papers formerly read in the court, and the report of J. W. Orr Sheriff of this County, from which report it appears that a sale of the land in the bill mentioned cannot be effected in consideration whereof it is ordered that the clerk of this Court issue an execution ^{in favor of the plaintiff} ~~in favor of the plaintiff~~ for the amount due on said decree to be made out of the goods and chattles of the defendant and the Court is continued.

On motion of the plaintiff This cause was placed on the 'issue' docket. And thereupon the cause came on this day to be heard on the bill of the plaintiff, the exhibit filed and was argued by counsel. And it appearing to the court that process has been duly executed on the defendant by being published and posted as prescribed by law, and the defendant still failing to appear in person claim or plead, the bill is therefore taken for confessed as to him.

And it also appearing to the court that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of one hundred dollars with interest from the 11th November 1865. On consideration whereof it is adjudged ordered and decreed that the plaintiff recover against the defendant, one hundred dollars with interest from the 11th of November 1865 Till paid, And to pay and satisfy the same it is further ordered that Henry & Morgan & associates & commissioners James W. Orr Sheriff of this county sell so much of the land in the bill mentioned and levied on by virtue of an attachment issued out in this suit by Lewis Smith deputy sheriff of the said James W. Orr, Sheriff as aforesaid as will be sufficient to pay and satisfy the plaintiffs debt with and the costs of this suit and expenses of sale. The said Sheriff is ^{well & duly sworn as a deputy of said court} directed to make the sale of said ^{land} at the front door of the court house of this county on some land day in the month of

J. W. Robinson Defendant In Chancery

To the worshipful County Court, of Lee County, in chancery now sitting, The undersigned begs leave to state that by a decree rendered in the above cause he was directed to sell the land in the bill mentioned and to execute the order of the court, he advertised the land to be sold as in the decree directed, and offered the same for sale at the front door of the court house, and was unable to effect a sale thereof, owing to the fact as ^{the undersigned} ~~there~~ is informed, that ^{there} is an incumbrance on the land which has priority of lien, over the decree of the plaintiff and he is satisfied he cannot ~~now~~ effect a sale on any reasonable terms. He further thinks it proper to say that the defendant has personal property in said County, out of which plaintiff's claims could be made by virtue of an execution issuing out of said decree.
Respectfully submitted this 20th day of December 1886,
